HackGT Judge Confirmation

Dear Jayakumar Ramalingam,

On behalf of the HackGT organizing team and HexLabs, thank you for serving as an official judge at HackGT 13: Seaside Market, held at the Georgia Institute of Technology in Atlanta, Georgia. We are truly grateful for the time and care you dedicated to evaluating the incredible projects created by participants during the event. Your support helps make HackGT a memorable and impactful experience for everyone involved!

From September 25th-27th, 2026, HackGT 13 brought together over 1,000 students from universities around the world for a weekend of innovation, creativity, and collaboration. Your involvement helped ensure that projects were assessed fairly and that students received meaningful feedback on their ideas and technical implementations.

We sincerely appreciate your contribution to the event and your support of the student developer community. Events like HackGT rely on professionals like you who are willing to share their time and knowledge to encourage the next generation of creators.

Thank you again for helping make HackGT 13 an unforgettable experience!

Sincerely,
